RAIL IN LINCOLNSHIRE

Lincolnshire has a good network of rail services providing travel across the county and beyond.

Conveniently placed train stations mean that for many, rail transport can be the most convenient and efficient way to travel.

For all timetables and fares in Lincolnshire visit nationalrail.co.uk

COMMUNITY TRANSPORT

Community transport and car schemes are operated by volunteers who use their own vehicles to provide transport to people living locally, ideal for those unable to use public transport. The price of a journey varies depending on the mileage.

To find out more or to become a volunteer driver call 01522 550129. Alternatively, visit lincolndialaride.co.uk or call 01522 544983 for information on services for the elderly or disabled in the Lincoln, North Kesteven and West Lindsey areas.
